

Hidden beauties of Lesvos: From the Gulf of Gera to Fara

Half-Day Private Tour, 4 hours

Travel distance: 30 nautical miles

Price: From 350€

Detailed Cruise

Departure from Skala Loutron

Embark on an unforgettable half-day boat excursion as you explore the breathtaking beauty of Lesvos' coastline. This 4-hour private boat trip in Lesvos begins at the charming port of Skala Loutron, located in the stunning Gulf of Gera. You will first admire the two rocky islets, Kalogeros and Vromonisi, as well as the picturesque islet of Agios Isidoros, home to a traditional chapel.

Along the way, you'll enjoy idyllic beaches such as Ligonari, Tsafi, Gialiotissa, and Tsilia, each offering a glimpse of the island's natural beauty.

Agios Ermogenes

First stop is the pristine beach of Agios Ermogenes, a sandy haven surrounded by pine trees that stretch down to the sea, where you can swim in the crystal-clear waters. Next, we'll dive into the waters around the rocky islets of the area, which are known for their spectacular underwater landscapes and colorful fish—perfect for snorkeling and free diving enthusiasts.

Fara, Tarti

You will then visit Tarti, a stunning location with sandy shores and smooth pebbles at the base of a lush green hill. Famous for its emerald waters, Tarti also features a spectacular rock formation ideal for impressive dives into the sea.

Final stop is the untouched beach of Fara, a hidden gem where you can explore sea caves while swimming and unwind with coffee or cocktails, wrapping up your private boat cruise in Lesvos in the most serene way possible.

- Included: Snorkeling equipment, refreshments, water, beer, wine and snacks
- Not included: Fuel costs
- Upon request: Fishing equipment, fishing techniques instruction, fish finder navigation guidance, fresh-handmade ceviche, route adjustments, tour extension

